

THE BOWEN CENTER PRESENTS

EXPLORING AUTOMATIC PATTERNS: FROM THE FAMILY TO THE WORKPLACE

MARCH 20, 2020 | WASHINGTON, DC

Exploring Automatic Patterns: From the Family to the Workplace

This conference will explore the idea that the effort for differentiation of self in one's own family contributes to enhanced functioning in one's work. Increasing one's awareness of emotional and relationship patterns across one's previous generations informs the effort to become a more connected and a more defined self in one's family. This process can produce shifts in one's functioning in family, a family's functioning, as well as enhanced leadership effectiveness. Recordings of two clinical interviews will be shown to illustrate the interplay between the effort for differentiation of self in one's family and in the workplace.

The Clinical Conference Series provides an opportunity to hear different perspectives on Bowen theory applied to a broad range of clinical challenges. Each conference day includes a theoretical presentation followed by a screening of recorded clinical interviews.

SCHEDULE *

- 9:30 Theoretical Presentation
Kenton T. Derstine, MDiv, DMin
- 10:30 Discussion
- 11:00 Coffee Break
- 11:15 First Recording
- 12:15 Discussion
- 12:45 Lunch Break
- 2:00 Second Recording
- 3:00 Discussion
- 3:30 Adjournment

* Please note that the schedule may change at the speaker's discretion.

TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

The Faith Leadership Seminar is an online program for leaders in faith communities who have had training and experience with Bowen theory. It will involve case studies, learning sessions, and responses in large group online sessions, small group consultation sessions, and individual consultations with a faculty coach. Meetings will be held Mondays at 10am ET.

Applications are now open for academic year 2020-2021:

thebowncenter.org/training/fls/application-flso

Contact Program Head: Edward Henley, MDiv at ehenley@thebowncenter.org

LOCATION

The Bowen Center for the Study of the Family
4400 MacArthur Blvd. NW, Suite 103
Washington, DC 20007

DATE

March 20, 2020

TIME

9:30 AM - 3:30 PM

At-Door Registration 9:00 AM

FEES

Regular Rate:	$95
Full-Time Student Rate:	$25
Part-Time Student Rate:	$45
5 CEU/CEs:	$15

REGISTER ONLINE

thebowncenter.org/meetings/clinical-conferences